

Gunnedah District Development Board Inc

representing Commerce & Industry

Membership Application

Proudly Supported by:

The Gunnedah District Development Board (GDDB) welcomes all individuals and businesses to have an interest in the local Business community. Current membership ranges from large manufacturing and service industries to small owner-operated concerns and individuals.

Who leads the GDDB?

The members run the GDDB. Each year they elect a voluntary Management Committee from our Members to determine policies and set goals. The Management Committee in turn, elects an Executive of Office Bearers.

A Voice for the Gunnedah Business Community

The GDDB is involved in representing the business community on a number of committees including;

- * Crime Prevention
- * Community Scholarship Fund
- * Main Street Management
- * Mining Community Consultative Committees
- * Shenhua Community Fund Advisory Committee
- * Business Partner Program
- * Cultural Precinct
- * Australia Day
- * Liquor Licensing Accord

What activities are the GDDB involved in?

- The Management Committee executive meet regularly with Gunnedah Shire Council to discuss issues that affect the Gunnedah business community
- Monthly Management committee meetings (members are welcome to attend)
- The GDDB coordinates and presents the Gunnedah Business and Service awards
- Networking events with keynote speakers are held for Members quarterly
- Social events such as movie nights
- Presentation of a variety of seminars each year on topics ranging from business management to staff development.
- Investigating and promoting the opportunities associated with Tourism within the Region
- Participation in the Try a Trade Days for Secondary students in Gunnedah, Narrabri & Quirindi

There are many reasons to join the GDDB

- Discovering the benefits of community involvement and developing networks with businesses within our community
- Involving your business in Corporate responsibility and supporting economic lobbying for our Community's future
- Utilising the networking opportunities and meeting great people
